Join us for an exciting weekend of spirit journeys and exercises to accelerate our progress on the path to stable, joyous unity consciousness.

Enlightenment – the deepest longing of our souls, the next step in our evolution, essential to our very survival on earth . . .

In the workshop we focus on our own paths to enlightenment, knowing that each person's advancement is necessary to the progress of the whole. With the drum to power our journeys we follow an ancient shamanic tradition, seeking guidance, teachings and experiences tailored expressly to our unique situation by our compassionate spirits. Like shamans of old, firmly grounded here and now on earth, we also move freely between ordinary and sacred states of consciousness to carry out our mission to bring healing into our communities, and foster unity consciousness among our people.
